GENERAL CONDITIONS OF THE FINANCING AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

The Proposer, (hereinafter "Proposer"), that is the company that has proposed a fundraising for the financing of a project that involves the construction of an electricity plant from renewable sources through the lending crowdfunding portal www.ener2crowd.com (the "Platform") managed by Ener2Crowd srl;

AND

The Lender, (hereinafter the "Lender"), ie the natural person, with express exclusion for legal persons, who makes a loan using the Platform in adherence to the fundraising. Separately also "the Party" or "the Parties"

PREMISES

- a) Ener2Crowd srl ("E2C"), as manager of the Platform has prepared, in agreement with the Proposer, these general conditions of contract (the "General Conditions") and the management and IT processes for the completion of the agreements between the Proposer and the Lender in order to ensure a correct, transparent and homogeneous contract stipulation process between Proposer and Lender, given that E2C is not a party to the loan agreement, is not a broker and does not carry out financial consultancy activities.
- b) The Parties, by mutual agreement, recognize E2C, in its capacity as payment agent of the Lemonway SA institution (hereinafter the "Payment Institution"), as appointed by the Parties to manage the cash flows relating to the execution of the loan, without that the activity rendered by the Payment Institution entails no charge for the Parties.

The responsibility for the financing carried out by the Lender lies with the Proponent, while E2C is not responsible for it and for this reason the Parties release E2C from any responsibility relating to the financing.

[Art. 1.] Structure of the Agreement

The loan agreement between the Lender and the Proposer (the "Loan Agreement") is cumulatively composed:

- i) from the documentation of the offer to the public present and published (hereinafter also the "Public Offer") present on the page www.ener2crowd.com (hereinafter the "Project");
- ii) by these General Conditions;
- iii) the Special Conditions of financing established between the Parties (the "Special Conditions") which constitute an Annex to the General Conditions and which contain some essential elements of the Financing Agreement, such as, inter alia, remuneration of the loan and duration of the loan.

The Proposer publishes and always makes available on the Platform the entire Loan Agreement and in particular, with respect to the Special Conditions, the Parties acknowledge that the same are negotiated directly between the Lender and the Proposer on the basis of transparent, objective and non-discriminatory criteria.

Once the Loan Agreement has been signed, E2C makes available to the Proponent and the Lender, in digital format, a copy of the Loan Agreement signed between the Parties, as well as sends a communication to the Lender providing the same confirmation of the positive outcome of the signing of the Loan Agreement.

The Loan Agreement and the communication of the successful signing of the Agreement will be made available in the Lender's Personal Area on the Platform.

The Proponent undertakes towards the Lender to conduct his business in good faith and fairly, safeguarding the usefulness of the loan for the Lender.

The Lender is free to choose the Project to be financed as well as the sum of capital to be financed, taking into account the Public Offer relating to the Project.

[Art. 2.] Completion of the Contract

The General Conditions of the Loan Agreement bind the Proposer when he publishes his Public Offer on the Platform.

The Proposer's Public Offer remains firm and irrevocable for the duration established in the offer itself and obliges the Proposer to accept all the adhesions of the Lenders that comply with the Loan Agreement.

The Lender adheres to the Loan Agreement in the following ways:

- a) The Lender defines with the Proponent the Particular Conditions of the peer to peer financing of the Project presented in the Public Offer on the Platform;
- b) The Lender, by following the guided computer procedure on the Platform, expresses its acceptance of the General Conditions and the Special Conditions generated by the Platform;
- c) The Lender makes the payment of the financed sum electronically to his payment account accessed at the Payment Institution (the "Payment Account"), choosing the Project.

At the end, the Payment Institution debits the Lender's Payment Account and credits the Proposer's Payment Account with the amount established in the Special Conditions.

The Loan Agreement provides for the achievement of the minimum objective of raising funds to support the Project in the period of validity indicated in the Public Offer.

Failure to achieve this minimum objective will result in the Proposer being obliged to promptly notify the Lender by returning the sum subject to the loan within twenty days following the end of the validity period indicated in the Public Offer.

If, on the other hand, after the duration of the Offer to the Public and after the achievement of the minimum objective, for any reason it is impossible to carry out the Project, the Proponent undertakes to return to the Lender, on the expiry date of the next closest installment indicated in the Amortization Plan in the Special Conditions, the financed capital and the interest accrued up to then without entailing any cost or burden for the Lender and with the exclusion of any liability on the part of the Proponent in the event of a relative delay the timing of the refund of the sums by the Payment Institute.

Any repayment of the sums in favor of the Lender will take place by crediting the amount free of charge to the Lender's Payment Account ("Return of sums" as also indicated in the Special Loan Conditions).

Each Loan Agreement entered into by the Proposer with a single Lender is separate from all other contracts entered into by the Proposer with the other Lenders.

In case of discrepancy between the financing intention expressed by the Lender on the Platform and the sum actually paid, the latter prevails and the Financing Agreement is considered concluded for this amount. The documentation of the payment institution in charge of the transfers provides full proof of this amount and its payment.

[Art. 3.] Duration

The loan agreement has the duration provided for in the Special Conditions as negotiated between the Parties. At the end of the Loan Agreement, the Proponent is required to return the financed sum to the Lender without delay, in addition to the residual remuneration provided for in the Special Conditions, crediting the amount without expenses to the Lender's Payment Account.

[Art. 4.] Remuneration of the Loan

Against the loan by the Lender from the Proposer's Payment Account, the latter undertakes to pay the Lender the remuneration provided for in the Special Conditions.

Both the loan and the remuneration are settled exclusively in euros.

The remuneration may relate to interest calculated on a fixed basis, with an annual rate to be parameterized to the effective duration of the loan for the reason of the month.

Depending on the provisions of the Special Conditions, this remuneration can be periodic (e.g. monthly, quarterly, etc.) or paid at the end of the loan, together with the repayment of the capital.

If the duration, calculated from the payment to the repayment, includes a fraction of a month, a full month will be calculated for the purpose of calculating the interest.

Furthermore, if provided for in the Special Conditions, the remuneration may include, in addition to fixed interest, also a remuneration commensurate with the success of the initiative.

In the event of a delay in the payment of the agreed remuneration, the Proponent undertakes to pay the Lender an interest rate of 5% per annum within 30 days, to be calculated as specified in the Special Conditions.

The Lender accepts that the closure of the Payment Account will make it impossible to receive any amount still owed to it in relation to the loan made and not yet credited in its favor.

[Art. 5.] Right of reconsideration of the Lender

The Lender may withdraw from the Loan Agreement within 14 working days from the payment. The withdrawal will not cost the Lender.

In the event of exercising the right of withdrawal referred to in this article, the Proposer is required to return the Lender only the principal amount only if it has already been credited by the Lender to the Payment Account in the name of the Proposer.

The exercise of the right of withdrawal by the Lender will not result in the closure of the Payment Account in his name, as this is the exclusive responsibility of the Payment Institute.
